The Convention of the Congregational Ministers in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts

Is a voluntary Association, embracing all the Congregational Clergy of the Commonwealth, but vested with no particular authority or control over the churches.

Their meeting is held in Boston, in the afternoon of the last Wednesday in May, or day of Election annually, at five, P. M. and the following day at eleven, A. M. After transacting the usual business of the Convention, a sermon is delivered in public before them, and a collection made for the charitable purpose of relieving the indigent Widows of Congregational Clergymen.

Difficulties having often arisen in determining, what widows are the proper objects of the charity of this Convention, it was voted, June 1, 1815, That a Standing Committee be appointed, five of whom shall be chosen centrally, and the remainder in different parts of the State. The five, with the Scribe and Treasurer, shall act as a Reporting Committee, to receive from the other Members of the Committee, applications and statements of facts in behalf of persons who may be subjects of the charity of the Convention; and having considered the same, shall judge of the persons to be relieved, and the proportion to be given to each, and make report to the Convention, on the first day of their meeting annually; further, that the names of said Committee shall be annually published in the Massachusetts Register.

STANDING COMMITTEE.

Accordingly, when the widow of any Congregational Clergyman is considered an object of the charity of the Convention, it is desired that answers to the following questions be given by one of the Standing Committee, by the first of May in each year, to be communicated to the Reporting Committee, that they may possess the documents for making a correct report to the Convention.

1. What is her age?
2. What are the number, the sex, the ages, and the circumstances of her children?
3. What is a fair estimate of her property?
4. What is her ability to help herself?

5. What connexions has she, who are bound to afford her assistance? And in what way do they assist her?

6. What is her income?

7. What peculiar circumstances render her an object of charity; or make it desirable, that she should have aid this year?

The Standing Committee are also desired to give notice to the Scribe, whenever an alteration takes place in the circumstances of the widows, who are objects of charity.

Rev. Nathaniel L. Frothingham, of Boston, Treasurer.

Rev. John Codman, of Dorchester, Scribe of the Convention.

Rev. Dr. Humphrey, first Preacher.

Rev. Dr. Codman, second Preacher.

The Convention earnestly recommend to all young gentlemen who design to devote themselves to the work of the ministry, to spend that portion of time in the study of divinity, which learned and judicious advisers shall think necessary to qualify them for public teachers.

Massachusetts Congregational Charitable Society.

Annual meeting on the Monday preceding the General Election.

[This Society was incorporated 24th of March, 1786; "for the humane and benevolent purpose of affording relief and support to the widows and children of deceased ministers. The members may not exceed thirty of the clergy, and laity in equal proportion."]

President, Israel Thorndike, Esq.

Secretary, Levi Hedge, LL. D.

Treasurer, Eliphalet Porter, D. D.

General Association in Massachusetts.

This body was organized in June 1805. In 1814, it consisted of Delegates from 12 Associations in Massachusetts Proper. Its members "admit as articles of faith, the doctrines of Christianity, as they are generally expressed in the Assembly's Shorter Catechism," and consider these doctrines which have been generally embraced by the churches of New-England, as the "basis of their union." This body wholly disclaims ecclesiastical power or authority over the Churches, or the opinions of individuals. The essential objects, as expressed in their Constitution, are "to promote brotherly intercourse and harmony, and their mutual animation, assistance, and usefulness as ministers of Christ."

☞ Annual meetings last Tuesday in June.

The members of this Society amount to about 400, reside in 20 different States, and belong to seven denominations of Christians. The Board of Directors, who are chosen annually, meet quarterly on the second Wednesday of January, April, July, and October, and oftener if necessary. A Committee of the Board meet the day previous, at 3 P. M. at the Rooms of the Society, to examine and recommend candidates for patronage; —besides whom, there are 41 Examining Committees in different parts of the United States. There are six Branch Societies connected with the Parent Society.

Nearly One thousand young men have been assisted, in a greater or less degree, by the funds. Not far from 400 are now under patronage at more than 60 Institutions. Those who have been aided by the Society belong to seven denominations of Christians—they are natives of almost every State and Territory of the Union, and have pursued studies at Ten Theological Seminaries, Twenty three Colleges, and seventy seven Academies—Total 110 Institutions. All monies are appropriated in the form of advantageous loans, and not as a charity. One thousand dollars constitutes a Permanent Scholarship; and seventy-five dollars a year, for seven years, constitutes a Temporary Scholarship.

The Russian price for Peace.

According to the treaty, Turkey is to pay Russia, for cost and charges of the war 10,000,000 ducats of Holland. Some query has arisen as to the value of the ducat. According to the New York Atlas, the ducat of Holland, as Computed by Dr. Kelley, is 9*s.* 4*d.* sterling. At this rate the amount to be paid by Turkey, is about £5,000,000 sterling, in addition to 1,500,000 ducats more, to be paid the Russian merchants for spoliations on their commerce, making together about $24,000,000.
